

McKinney Vento Services

If your child has been identified and approved for services under the McKinney-Vento Act, he/she is entitled to the following general rights:

- The right to stay in their school (school of origin), even if they move out of the school district. Students can remain in their school until the end of the school year even if they find permanent housing.
- The right to immediately enroll, attend classes, and fully participate in the area where they are living, without proof of residency, immunization records, or other medical records, school records, or other documents.
- The right to access certain school services including free school meals, services for English Language Learners, special education, Title I services, vocational/technical education, gifted and talented services, and transportation to school of origin.
- The right to the same opportunity to meet the same high academic standards as all students.

As the Fruitvale ISD district McKinney-Vento liaison, you can contact me, Angela Clark, with regards to the above information if you have any questions at 903-896-4363. You can also contact the Texas Homeless Education Office toll free at 1-800-446-3142 for questions regarding the McKinney-Vento Act. If you feel your child qualifies and we have not yet identified them, please contact me as well.
